Call for Student Posters

The Michigan Transportation Planning Association (MTPA) is a group of planning professionals from across the state that work on topics related to transportation. MTPA's annual conference is being held in Detroit from July 25-27th, 2018, and they are inviting students to join in on the fun.

Here's the deal: there are free conference registration spots available for students who are interesting in attending. All you have to do to participate is submit a poster for the student poster session. This could be a project you are currently working on, a project from a previous semester, or a new planning idea or project that you would like to share.
